

Airport Fire Service Managers Course

SFJ Awards | 5 day course

Your fire service personnel know what to do and how to do it in the event of an emergency.

But you know that running a fire station is about so much more. It's about leadership, planning, delivery and improvement.

Do your current managers have the skills and knowledge to manage people, resources and risk? And the people in your talent pool who are part of your succession plans?

Course Overview

Meets the requirements of CAP 699 Aviation Fire Service Manager Units:

- AFSM 3 – Plan and implement activities to meet service delivery needs.
- AFSM 4 - Manage the effective use of resources
- AFSM 5 – Manage the performance of Teams and Individuals to achieve objectives
- AFSM 6 – Develop teams and individuals to enhance work-based performance
- AFSM 7 - Provide information to support decision making

Meets identified Training Needs*:

- Working with people as individuals and teams
- Managing yourself
- Personal skills
- Providing Direction
- Facilitating Innovation and change
- Continuous Improvement
- Staff performance and discipline
- Staff development
- Dealing with conflict

Qualification

The Airport Fire Service Managers Course SFJ Awards will have two elements:

1. Certificate of Attendance for delegates who want to attend but do not want to undertake the assignment work.
2. Certificate of achievement that requires delegates to submit a piece of additional work following the end of the course.

The Airport Fire Service Managers Course is accredited by SFJ at both levels.

To book a place on this course please call or email our team on:

01325 333 317
bookings@iftc.co.uk